Forecast For East of England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 0400 on Thursday 22 Apr 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Thursday, a fine, sunny day, and feeling pleasantly warm inland.

Today:
A fine and dry day in prospect with long sunny spells. After a cold start temperatures will recover to give a pleasantly warm feeling afternoon inland with light winds, but feeling fresher around the coast with light onshore breezes. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Tonight:
Long clear spells overnight, and with generally light winds another chilly night is in store with a widespread frost developing. Minimum temperature -3 deg C (27 deg F).

Friday:
Another fine, dry day with long sunny spells. Feeling warm with afternoon temperatures a little higher than on Thursday. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Occasionally cloudier, especially near the coast, but still with sunny spells and predominantly dry. Cooler by day, with a more noticeable easterly breeze developing, and still chilly overnight.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.